Direction setting for 2017

Planning ahead of time is a must for any organization, hence the faculty and staff meeting last January 3, 2017, the first day of service for the New Year held at the School's conference room. The conference was presided by the new Administrative Officer IV and immediate past School Accountant, Mrs. Ma. Leticia Salcedo which started around 8:25 in the morning with snacks and lunch on the side to cater to the participants' whims.

There were 8 agenda presented and discussed during the half-day gathering to include: The Decrease in the 2017 Budget; 2017 Training Calendar; 2017 School Calendar; UTPRAS Special Audit Findings; Inventory of NC's and NTTC's; Accomplishment of IPCR for July to December, 2016; Initial Draft of IPCR for January to June, 2017 and the Preparation of PDS, SALN and Foreign Bilateral Form.

With the decrease in the 2017 budget, everybody was enjoined to be prudent in the use of school resources, electricity. Rendering of overtime, especially the JO's should only be done if necessary. The 2017 training calendar was ready, pending the discussion with the School Registrar for finalization likewise the teaching personnel, with plenty of time to spare, were also directed to conduct CBTED or go out for industry immersion. For the school calendar, tentative start of classes is June 13, 2017 and graduation is in the first week of April, 2017 with 70 days to spare for summer vacation from April 1 to June 11, 2017. As for the UTPRAS special audit findings, all concerned trainers are required to submit their respective PMPs on January 13, 2017, furthermore, on the inventory of NC's and NTTC's, trainers were urged to upgrade their NC's and exert effort in the renewal of their respective NTTC's.

For the rest of the agenda, submission of accomplished IPCR for the period July to December, 2016 and initial draft of IPCR for January to June, 2017 and preparation of PDS, SALN and Foreign
